

EMIL PANZARU

Academic employment

September 2017 – present
Graduate teaching assistant at King's College London

Education

2017-2021 King's College London - MPhil/PhD Political Economy Research
Supervisors: Professor Mark Pennington and Dr. John Meadowcroft
Research thesis: Ideal and non-ideal theory in environmental ethics (focus on water resource management)

2015-2016 London School of Economics - MSc Political Theory (61.5 Merit average)

2012-2015 University of Sheffield - BA Politics and International Relations (First Class Degree)

Courses taught at King's College London

4SSPP104 – Introduction to Political Theory (x2)

5SSPP209 – The Political Theory of Capitalism

5SSPP238 – Contemporary Issues in Political Theory

Publications

Panzaru, E. (2017). Policy Brief 3: Academic Leave? The Impact of Brexit on British Higher Education.
Bucharest: European Institute of Romania

Presentations

Panzaru, E. (2018). Environmental Ethics and the Pursuit of the Ideal. London: King's College London
Departmental Research.

Panzaru, E. (2017). Talking and doing: deliberative democracy versus polycentricity on reflexivity. Arlington:
Institute of Humane Studies

Service to the department

September 2017- September 2018 – Research Coordinator for DPE-IES Interdepartmental Seminars

Service to the profession

Referee for Romanian Journal of Society and Politics

Honors and scholarships

Frederic Bastiat Fellow – Mercatus Center at George Mason University - 2018-2019

Institute for Humane Studies – Travel Scholarship Award for The Future of Liberty seminar – 16-22 June 2018

Institute for Humane Studies in collaboration with Liberty Fund – Travel Scholarship Award for Classical Liberalism in Contemporary Political Philosophy – 2-4 February 2018

Institute for Humane Studies - Interdisciplinary Research Graduate Colloquium Travel Scholarship Award –
13-15 October 2017